

ALK appoints Carsten Hellmann as new President and CEO

May 17, 2016

Copenhagen, 2016-05-17 18:32 CEST (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) --

ALK (ALKB:DC / OMX: ALK B / AKABY / AKBLF) today announced that the Board of Directors has appointed Carsten Hellmann as the new President and CEO of the company.

Carsten Hellmann is currently CEO of Merial and Executive Vice President and member of the Executive Committee of Sanofi (NYSE:SNY). Headquartered in Lyon, Merial is Sanofi's Animal Health company with annual sales of EUR 2.6 billion (DKK 19 billion) and more than 7,000 employees worldwide. Before joining Sanofi, Carsten Hellmann held executive positions in global health care and biopharmaceutical companies including Chr. Hansen and Nunc Group. Carsten Hellmann is a Danish citizen, born in 1964.

"It is a great pleasure to announce that Carsten Hellmann will join ALK. Carsten Hellmann has extensive international experience and a strong track record of creating visible commercial results in research-based companies that share many similarities with ALK. We are convinced that Carsten Hellmann has the competences required to accelerate the global commercialisation of ALK's portfolio of evidence-based products targeting both allergic rhinitis and asthma," said Steen Riisgaard, Chairman of ALK's Board of Directors.

Carsten Hellmann commented: "ALK stands out as the world leader within allergy immunotherapy and the industry's foremost innovator. I'm inspired by ALK's vision and excited to lead ALK through its transformation to become a truly global company. ALK's innovative product range and solid partnerships form a strong foundation for growth, and I look forward to working with everyone at ALK to build an even stronger future for our patients, employees, partners and shareholders."

After a successful turn-around of Merial, Sanofi decided to divest the company to Boehringer-Ingelheim and Carsten Hellmann will complete this divestment before he takes up the position as President and CEO of ALK which will happen no later than 1 January 2017. Steen Riisgaard will continue to take on extended operational responsibilities until Carsten Hellmann is released from Sanofi.
